

ENERGY OF 10/10/10

Three thousand years ago in Egypt, Kiya holds the Staff of the Watchers during ceremony. The Staff begins to glow and the carved Cobra comes alive. The ceremonies were in preparation for the energy to be grounded into Mother Earth. The gate had to be opened by Kiya, Akhenaton and the others. This energy would open the Halls of Amenti and allow mankind to move into the 5th dimension and receive all the blessings of full consciousness. This energy came from Draconis in the form of wisdom from the dragons.

Kiya had come from the lands of the Hittites in a far away land. That place is now called Hatusas in Turkey.

Kiya and Akhenaton were not present for the opening of the gate as they had been poisoned and were buried. So the Halls of Amenti were not opened. This energy went on a long journey around the Universe and would complete its journey on 10/10/10.

Many looked for the Staff of the Watchers but it had disappeared. It had been moved into the etheric realm where it was kept safe by the Watchers until Kiya would be incarnated and once again to activate it's use.

The long awaited day of 10/10/10 was beginning to dawn. In a small village in Turkey many gathered to bring in the energy and ground it fully into Mother Earth by the use of Dragon Voice.

The incarnations of Kiya, Akhenaton, and Akhenaton's Mother, Daughters of Kiya and Akhenaton and many of the Watchers were present - 28 in all.

The ceremony began with a blessing of Crystal, Fire, Air (vibration of Shaman's rattle) and water, then all joined in the Dragon Voice. A column was formed in each crown Chakra and then deep into Mother Earth. With the following days the column was filled with a beautiful Mother of Pearl energy. Many felt the heaviness of it and their bodies were tired, but once fully grounded, the changes within them has changed their Light Bodies. The energy then spread to the rest of the world being grounded by the many who have Dragon DNA.

After this was accomplished a journey to the ancient ruins of “Caunos” was taken on a boat across a very large lake that went to the sea.

There, Dragon Voice was done in the remains of an ancient temple and also a Theatre in front of a large group of Tourists representing Spain, USA, England, Germany and Japan.

The next important ceremony was to take place in Hatusas, two hours from Ankara, Turkey. This is the Ancient Ruins of the Hittite Kingdom where Kiya was born. Here the Dragon Voice had to be done to activate the Staff of the Watchers once again.

Once this was done it was revealed that all Karma created from the Egyptian lives of Akhenaton, Kiya and the Watchers had been finished. By the year 2012 all Light Workers will have finished their Karma all together. Many have already accomplished this today.

May we all feel the blessings of Spirit in the forms of Energy being sent to assist Mother Earth and Humans, walking upon her to ascend!
